

Summary publication of "The Intellectual Legacy of INSTRAW for the Promotion of the Women's Rights. Institutional Memory from 1976 to 2010." UN Women Training Centre, 2016

I. CREATION OF INSTRAW (1976/1981)

INSTRAW - KEY DATES

- 1976 Creation.
- 1980 First publication.
- 1981 Appointment of the first director.

HUMAN RIGHTS OF WOMEN - KEY DATES

- 1975 First World Conference on Women, in Mexico.
- 1979 CEDAW.
- 1980 Second World Conference on Women in Copenhagen.

II. INSTRAW BECOMES ESTABLISHED (1982/1992)

- 1983 Established in the Dominican Republic.
- 1984 INSTRAW NEWS was published for the first time.
- 1986 Guidelines with Statistics, Data and Indicators Programme.
- 1990 10th anniversary INSTRAW News. Special edition on the Nairobi Conference.

- 1985 Third World Conference on Women in Nairobi.

III. INSTRAW IN CHALLENGING TIMES (1993/2003)

- 1993 Merging of INSTRAW and UNIFEM is proposed.
- 1995 Beijing Action Plan: strengthen research and training activities.
- 1996 INSTRAW was allowed to continue as an independent entity.
- 1999 ECOSOC adopted Resolution 1999/54 on revitalizing and strengthening INSTRAW.
- 2001 INSTRAW NEWS cease to publish.

- 1995 Fourth World Conference on Women in Beijing.
- 2000 Beijing +5.

IV. RELAUNCH OF INSTRAW (2004/2010)

- 2006 INSTRAW launches website.
- 2008 INSTRAW reaches the highest level of funds ever received.
- 2011 INSTRAW, OSAGI, DAW and UNIFEM merged to create UN Women. Creation of the UN Women Training Centre.

- 2005 Beijing +10.
- 2010 Beijing +15.

INSTRAW's output by topic

"INSTRAW was a pioneer for the introduction of a gender perspective in key research themes"

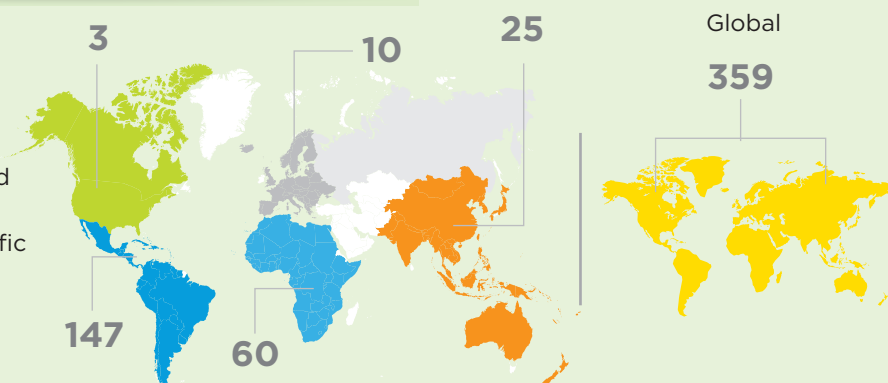

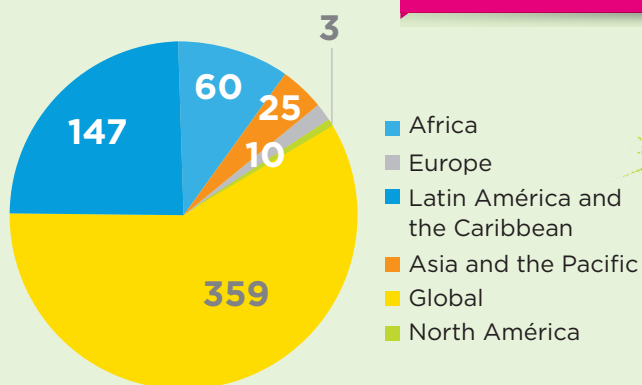

INSTRAW's output by its mandate

■ Training ■ Dissemination ■ Research

"INSTRAW had three mandates: training, dissemination and research. Research was the key of the training activities"

INSTRAW's output by region

"Most of INSTRAW's output had a global approach"

INSTRAW funds (1987-2008)

"INSTRAW was financed by volunteer contributions"

