

Scholarship Policy for UN Women Training Centre training activities and courses

- No full scholarships will be awarded with exceptions only for very special cases where eligibility is proven, and participation of the candidate is key for development of a project, policy or programme implementation which would otherwise be unlikely.
- Scholarships will be awarded depending upon availability of funds.
- Scholarships will only be awarded for tuition fees.

Scholarship eligibility criteria:

All candidates should be able to demonstrate a plan to apply acquired knowledge and skills in their work and meet two or more of the following criteria:

- ✓ A citizen and current resident in a middle- or low-income country,
 - ✓ A staff member of a government institution,
 - ✓ A staff member of a civil society organization,
 - ✓ A university student,
 - ✓ A university researcher,
 - ✓ Presently working or studying in the area related to [topic of the course],
 - ✓ A young practitioner or consultant in training for gender equality (up to 35 years of age),
 - ✓ Participants from partner organizations in exchange for services or similar activities.
- Scholarships will be awarded ensuring gender balance and diversity of participant profiles.
 - Candidates for scholarships must present:
 - ✓ A letter of institutional support.
 - ✓ Duly completed and signed application form including motivation statement for taking the course and how they will apply what they have learned in it.
 - Reduced fees: discounts to groups of 4 or more people. Information upon request. Participants must enroll jointly as a group in order to be eligible for reduced fees.