

BRIEF DESCRIPTION

The Course on the Convention on the Elimination of all Forms of Discrimination Against Women (CEDAW) results from an interagency cooperation initiative carried out by the UN Women Training Center, UN Women Headquarters and Country Offices and the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights (OHCR).

Identified as a priority for the UNCT/UN System, the Course aims at enhancing the understanding of the participants in the relevance of the CEDAW and its application to their daily work.

COURSE OBJECTIVE

- The main aim of this Course is to enhance the capacities of UN staff at national, regional and global levels, and incorporate CEDAW in programming and policy advocacy work.

METHODOLOGY

The Course can be completed in 4-6 hours and it can be followed online, with the support of multimedia components (videos, quizzlets, infographics, case studies, etc). A certificate of completion will be granted upon 80% success rate on the test offered at the end of the Course.

STRUCTURE

The Course is integrated by 5 modules:

- I) Introduction to the CEDAW
- II) Key Principles and Core Obligations
- III) Domestic Application of CEDAW
- IV) CEDAW Reporting
- V) Using the Optional Protocol

HOW TO REGISTER?

If you are interested in completing this Course, kindly send us an email to info.trainingcentre@unwomen.org